

Glanusk Estate: Comments from those who have stayed in our cottages:-

An absolutely gorgeous corner of Wales. The views from Library Cottage are wonderful and the estate is quite lovely with the River Usk flowing through the grounds. We will return."

Ms W

"The site of the accommodation was beautiful, quiet, secluded and peaceful. the accommodation was superb. A light and airy cottage which was in first class decorative order....this would be recommended without reservation / hesitation."

Ms M D

"The cottage was prepared as if we were expected as friends, and during the whole week the friendliness and helpfulness of everyone on the estate was exceptional! We shall most certainly be returning there next year we hope. It is our first Stately Homes holiday and we cannot praise it highly enough! Thanks. There are 20 miles of walks within the private estate!! and everywhere we were welcomed and treated as friends."

Mr T

"Must visit: Hay-on-Wye, Talybont Reservoir, Llanwrtyd Wells (Red Kites) and Brecon Mountain Railway (with children). Beaufort in Crickhowell and Nantyllyn Cider Mill Inn are both good restaurants."

Mr S

"Cottage far too comfortable to leave for any excursions."

Mr & Mrs A

"This was our first experience of both a tenancy and a Stately Homes property. We would like to pass on our congratulations on this particular property, which was really delightfully situated, extremely well appointed and very comfortable. We had very good weather and appreciated the peace and quiet of the many acres of Glanusk Park where we were free to stroll throughout the extensive grounds through which flows the river Usk."

Mrs H

"Do visit some of the canals in the area, very pleasant to walk beside. Also recommend a short drive to Tretower Court nearby, which is well worth a visit. Crickhowell, the nearest country town has a good local produce on sale in a number of shops. Thoroughly recommend this property."

Mrs H

"Lots to do in the area, particularly if the weather is good. Lots of information in the property. Owners are friendly and staffing estate office were very accommodating. We would recommend Glanusk Park to anyone. Excellent accommodation in a lovely setting. Many local attractions – too numerous to mention, but for a trip further a field, the museum of Welsh life near Cardiff is well worth a visit and it's free!"

Mr & Mrs M F

"No aspects of the property were disappointing at all; everything excelled what we had expected and was of an extremely high standard. Brecon is a lovely town with good facilities and a lovely Chinese takeaway! Walks around the immediate area are very satisfying even if very short, there is plenty to see without walking for miles. Plus the higher part of the fireplace is a great place to warm some red wine!"

Miss S H

"We were made very welcome. A very peaceful, beautiful cottage in superb grounds and scenery. Altogether a really excellent holiday."

Mrs C N

"Location superb. Great area for walking and bird watching when fine. Great views from Brecon Beacons. Good value for meal at 'Bear Hotel' Crickhowell. Also very good butchers in town."

Mr & Mrs M B W

"Amaretti's in Crickhowell do a really good cream tea (plenty of clotted cream, preserves, and warm home made scones). Gliffaes Hotel (5 minute drive, or a good walk) is good for afternoon tea. Good walking at Goytre Wharf and the Brecon beacons Mountain Centre."

Mrs H C

"We have visited the Garden Cottage three times and love it. Lovely outlook from the kitchen and lounge. Quiet and very private, and peaceful."

Mrs G W

"Walk from the cottage along the banks of the River Usk into Crickhowell with an English breakfast at the Amaretti's coffee house which opens everyday (except Monday) at 9am."

Mr & Mrs D W B

"We got a very warm welcome from members of the owners family (and their dogs!) and felt that they made every effort to ensure we were comfortable in the cottage."

Mr & Mrs B S

"We stayed in Garden Cottage, Glanusk over Christmas 2006. Not the best time of year for weather. However, for peace and tranquility it was excellent. We may well spend more time there in summer."

Mr C B

"We were given a warm welcome by the owners to the beautiful and exceptionally well equipped cottage in idyllic surroundings. Please do continue to feature it. "

Mr & Mrs S

"An excellent 4 day break. We could not fault the accommodation – first class, and a beautiful spot. "
