THE GLANUSK ESTATE

There are a number of features about The Glanusk Estate which will truly make your wedding day memorable and a wonderful experience not just for yourselves but also your guests. Whether you are having an intimate celebration for 20 or 30 guests, or a larger party, The Estate offers you the perfect backdrop for your special day.

We pride ourselves on attention to detail and the personal touch and are very flexible with your requirements.

- We do not charge corkage and you can supply your own alcohol
- Three sites for your marquee, one newly added with views over the River Usk
- 400 acres of private parkland with exclusive accommodation up to 35 guests
- Penmyarth Church, a private chapel for your blessing seating up to 100 guests
- Use of the drawing room for your intimate ceremony
- Beautiful gardens for your photographs and enjoyment
- Turreted tower over the River Usk including many other historical features

UNIQUE VENUE

The Glanusk Estate has been the cherished home of the Legge-Bourke family since 1825 and is set within 400 acres of private parkland, 20,000 acres of common land, 5 miles of the private River Usk and 1,000 acres of forestry. Please do look at www.glanuskestate.com for more information and beautiful pictures of the Estate.

PENMYARTH PARK

Penmyarth House sits grandly overlooking its own private parkland with views towards the river. It has its own landscaped gardens and is walking distance from the church. The Drawing room seats approximately 22 guests for the signing of the register. The marquee site is on the lawn at the front of the house, as pictured below.

The Drawing room is available for weekday ceremonies as well as for your photographs. The gardens for your marquee and/or the house can be booked dependent on your requirements.

GLANUSK PARK

Glanusk Lodge has a licensed drawing room and a large, private walled garden with stunning views over the parkland, adjacent to the site of the original mansion. It is situated on the other side of the River Usk from Penmyarth House, next to Garden Cottage.

The Lodge is accessed through the turreted tower and the old Stables arch – a lovely experience of The Estate for you and your guests.

RIVER VIEW

This site has just been newly added and is situated with views of the River Usk and the tower up to the mountains. It is a beautiful setting for your marquee and is within walking distance of the church.

Your guests would enter through the main Estate gates and enjoy the views of Penmyarth gardens and the river.

The view here is from Penmyarth Gardens looking down onto the site and marked with the arrow.

PENMYARTH CHURCH

Penmyarth Church is available for your blessing, welcoming any denomination and faith and can seat 100 guests comfortably. Extra guests can be accommodated with a marquee outside the church.

The signing of the register would take place in the drawing room of Penmyarth House or Glanusk Lodge dependent on your preference.

ACCOMMODATION ON THE ESTATE

PENMYARTH HOUSE

Penmyarth House has 3 double bedrooms, 4 twin bedrooms and 1 single bedroom with 6 bathrooms and sleeps up to 15. The house comes fully staffed. The accommodation price for this house includes breakfast and light refreshments throughout the day. The dining room can seat up to 22 people for either a formal or informal dinner and then there is the quirky rod room which can seat up to 35.

If you choose to have your wedding at Penmyarth, there is accommodation at Glanusk Lodge and Garden Cottage for your guests.

ACCOMMODATION ON THE ESTATE

GLANUSK LODGE

Glanusk Lodge is situated amongst the beautiful landscaped gardens and within the original grounds of the old mansion. The accommodation is self-catering, however, should you wish us to help you with any catering whilst you are staying at The Lodge, please do let us know.

Glanusk Lodge has 3 double bedrooms, 2 twin bedrooms, 2 single bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, large dining room and sitting room, kitchen with an Aga.

Some wedding parties have found it useful to book both houses. They have enjoyed spending time with their own family the evening and morning before their special day.

GARDEN COTTAGE

This beautiful cottage is situated next to Glanusk Lodge and has one twin bedroom and one double bedroom.

It is set within its own walled garden adjacent to the old Stable block.

It is often booked by the bride and groom.
